Allocation of funds to Valmiki Awas Yojana

'598. SHRI B. J. PANDA: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) the total allocation of funds to the Valmiki Awas Yojana cleared by Government in third week of October; and

(b) the scheme of expenditure of the fund under various aspects (i) the economic and social criteria of the beneficiaries (ii) the end use of the allocation, and (iii) monitoring the expenditure?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION (SHRI BANDARU DATTATRAYA): (a) The Government has decided to launch Valmiki Ambedkar Awas Yojana (VAMBAY) in the current year with an allocation of 100 crores. The details of the scheme will be reviewed by the Government before its inclusion in theTenth Five Year Plan;

(b) The primary objective of the scheme is to provide shelter or upgrade the existing shelter for people living below the poverty line in urban slums with a view to achieving the goal of "Housing far all" as outlined in the National Housing & Habitat Policy and the National Agenda for Governance with a definite time frame. 20% of the allocation will be used for provision of community based toilets as a component of the scheme also. The following priorities will prevail for earmarking the houses under the scheme:—

(i)	SC/ST	—	not less than 50%
(ii)	Backward Classes	—	30%
(iii)	Other Weaker sections (OBC, BC etc. as defined in any particular State)	—	15%
(iv)	Physically and mentally disabled and handicapped persons	—	5%

Within this reservation, preference will be given to women headed households, urban poor who are members of self-help groups and persons eligible for old age pension as defined by the State Government.

State Governments will monitor the implementation of the programme. The State Governments will prescribe the periodical reports/returns through which they would monitor the performance of VAMBAY in the districts and send the same to the Government of India. The monitoring of the programme at the State level will be the responsibility of a State Level Co-ordination Committee (SLCC) for urban housing. A representative or nominee each of the Ministry of Urban Development and Poverty Alleviation, Government of India and of HUDCO would invariably be members of the State Level Coordinating Committee (SLCC).
